Order Providing for Monthly Payments for Stay Relief under Certain Circumstances

Page 2

This matter having been brought on before this Court on motion for stay relief filed by John R. Morton, Jr., Esq., attorney for Santander Consumer USA Inc., with the appearance of Allen Gorski, Esq. on behalf of the debtor, and this order having been filed with the Court and served upon the debtor and his attorney under the seven day rule with no objections having been received as to the form or entry of the order, and for good cause shown;

IT IS ORDERED:

1. That Santander Consumer USA Inc. is the holder of a first purchase money security interest encumbering a 2011 Buick Enclave bearing vehicle identification number 5GAKVBED1BJ187619 (hereinafter the "vehicle").
2. The debtor shall make all retail installment contract payments to Santander Consumer USA Inc. when due, being the 14th day of each month. In the event the debtor fails to make any payment for a period of 30 days after it falls due, Santander Consumer USA Inc. shall receive stay relief to repossess and sell the vehicle by filing a certification of nonpayment and serving it upon the debtor and his attorney.
3. The debtor shall maintain insurance on the vehicle in accordance with the terms of the retail installment contract. In the event of a lapse of insurance for any period of time without intervening coverage, Santander Consumer USA Inc. shall receive stay relief to repossess and sell the vehicle by filing a certification that insurance has lapsed with the court and serving it upon the debtor and his attorney.
4. The debtor shall pay to Santander Consumer USA Inc. through the plan, a counsel fee of $431 which shall be paid by the trustee as an administrative priority expense.
